

Louisiana's Old
State Capitol

Enter our Capitol Caption Contest

Inspired by multiple Pulitzer Prize winner Walt Handelsman of The Advocate of Baton Rouge

Choose a template picture of Louisiana's Old State Capitol and fill in the cartoon bubbles to indicate what is being said. Some templates have 2 "bubbles" to fill in and some have three. Some use a dove (symbol for peace) and a hawk (symbol for war) but you can use it as just two birds talking. Be creative! Draw in additional details if you wish. This is just a start!

Your captions can be funny, irreverent, satirical, but must be clean and presentable to post on our social media! Have fun! If you don't have the perfect idea now, come back and enter when the inspiration strikes or mail in your entry to: Louisiana's Old State Capitol/100 North Boulevard, Baton Rouge, LA 70801 ATTN: Caroline Kennedy Enter as many times as you wish!

ENTER BY September 15th so the winner can be announced before the exhibit closes on 9/29/2018.

To be eligible to win, you must put your name, age, and e-mail address in the space below, and your caption must be legible! Please also answer the two questions below. Your answers do not alter the judging!

Name: _____ Age: _____

E-mail address: _____

What is your favorite thing about Louisiana's Old State Capitol?

What new thing did I learn during my visit to Louisiana's Old State Capitol?